Turn Turn Turn

*To everything turn, turn, turn.
There is a season turn, turn, turn.
And a time to every purpose-Unto heaven.
A time to be born, A time to die.
A time to kill, A time to heal.
A time to laugh, A time to weep.*

*To everything turn, turn, turn.
There is a season turn, turn, turn.
And a time to every purpose-Unto heaven.
A time to build up, A time to break down.
A time to dance, A time to mourn.
A time to cast away stones,
A time to gather stones together.*

*To everything turn, turn, turn.
There is a season turn, turn, turn.
And a time to every purpose-Unto heaven.
A time of love, A time of hate.
A time of war, A time of peace.
A time you may embrace,
A time to refrain from embracing.*

*To everything turn, turn, turn.
There is a season turn, turn, turn.
And a time to every purpose-Unto heaven.
A time to gain, A time to lose.
A time to rend, A time to sow.
A time for love, A time for hate.
A time for peace, I swear it's not too late.*

*Sherry
you're really pretty lots of
Ray K.*

Sherry-
 I don't know what to say because I'm kind of sad and I should
 write something happy.
 We've had some of the greatest times
 together - You, Lois, Jompy
 & me. Never forget that.
 I'll never be the same
 again, but new things
 come to replace memories
 so I guess I should be looking ahead. When I'm gone though, remember me happy.
 Love Always
 Christie

Sherry-

Have fun with John and you'd better be at the beach this summer
 or else!! - you're really a gas!!

Peace

HOMECOMING

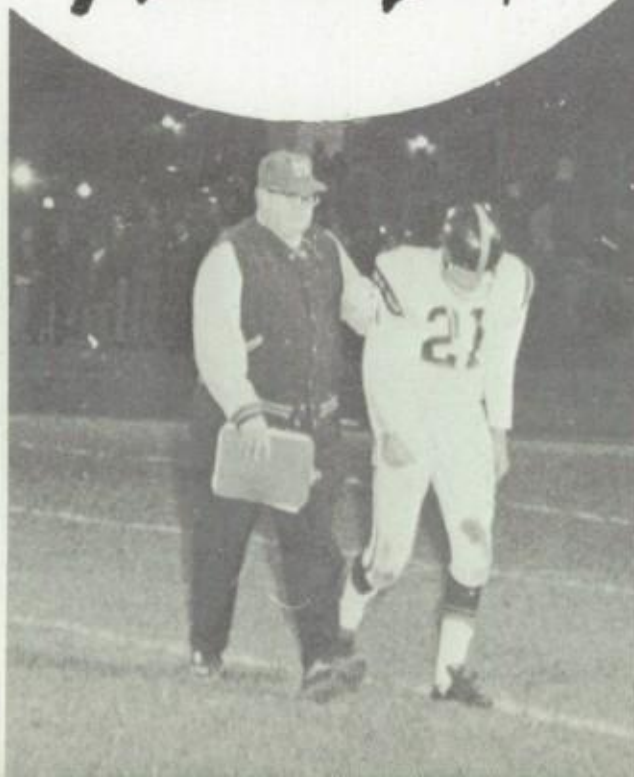

Homecoming means something different and special to everyone. Perhaps the most wonderful things about Homecoming are memories, and Homecoming is a time to remember. It is remembering . . . the queen candidates . . . campaign managers . . . Chrysie, Chrysie, you're so sweet . . . campaigning . . . superstition . . . decorating the glass hall 'til 8 p.m. . . flower power . . . the prohibited parade . . . 39 to 20 . . . being tired . . . Friday the 13th . . . old friends . . . The Plague . . . being happy . . . Unwind the Minutemen . . . we're from Murray, couldn't be prouder . . . a Homecoming game at Harding . . . a dance 'til 11:30 . . . curlers and goalposts . . . tears . . .

The Homecoming queen candidates and their campaign managers were Becky Hale-Ron Leu, Hebe Morgan-Tim Olson, Sherry Goodlet-Tom Beseman, Patt Barrick-Jim Jensen, and Chrysie Miller-Harlan Pearson.

Queen Chrysie was crowned by Diane Beseman, 1966 Homecoming Queen, at an assembly, which was followed by the Homecoming game against Central and the annual dance.

Club Keeps Busy Raising Funds

Newly organized this year was the AFS Club. This year's officers included Dave Geise, president; Teena Mantis, vice-president; Barb Koenig, secretary; and Bev Caldwell, treasurer. The club's purpose is to help raise funds for the American Field Service Program and to help schedule and support the AFS student during his year at Murray.

Elizabeth Frey, this year's AFS student, was from Basel, Switzerland. While attending Murray, Elizabeth made her home with Teena Mantis.

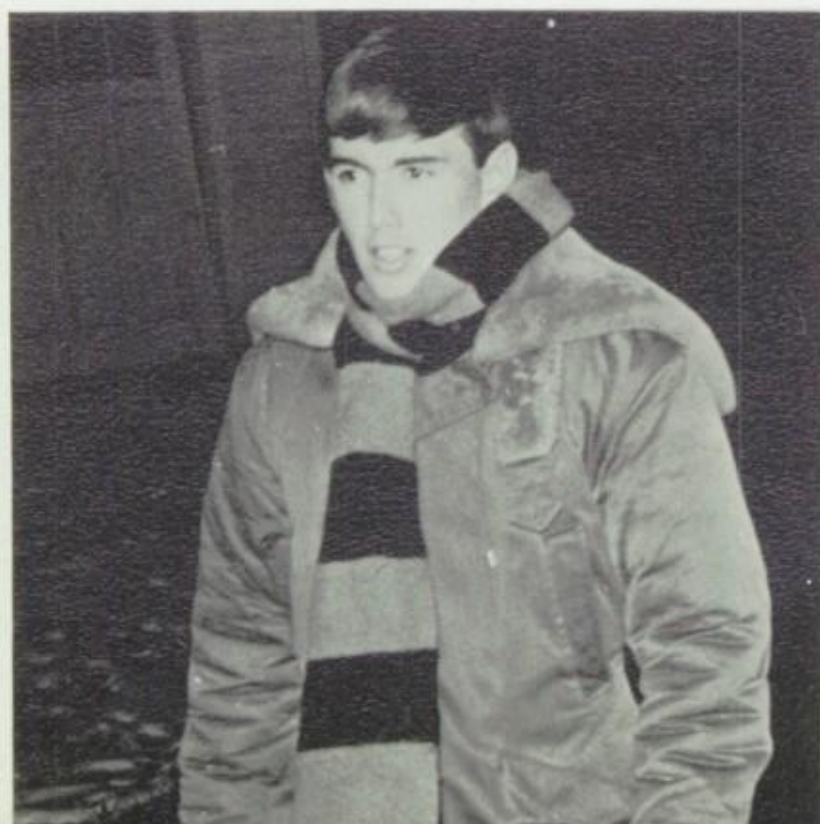

The chicken barbeque, the ice cream social and penny Wednesday were a few of the activities the club supported this year.

Prom co-chairmen Vicky Dalnes and Ray Forliti appointed committees and with Mrs. Medora Brown, advisor to the class of '68, worked to make the prom a success.

For the junior class the prom climaxed a year of fund raising activities including the Sadie Hawkins Dance, the Crystal Ball, the Blarney Ball, a car wash and a movie.

Music for the evening was supplied by Jerry Markley's fifteen-piece orchestra.

Hostesses - Kathy Aldean, Barb Andrews, Lynn Curtis and Linda Zechmeister.

Besides providing the students with smiling helpful bookstore girls, Bev Caldwell and Carol Lewandoski, the Student Council worked closely with the administration in promoting school policies. Students elected by their classmates carried out such activities as the annual "March of Toys" and the annual "Sno Foolin" day.

Raising Funds, Changing Policies

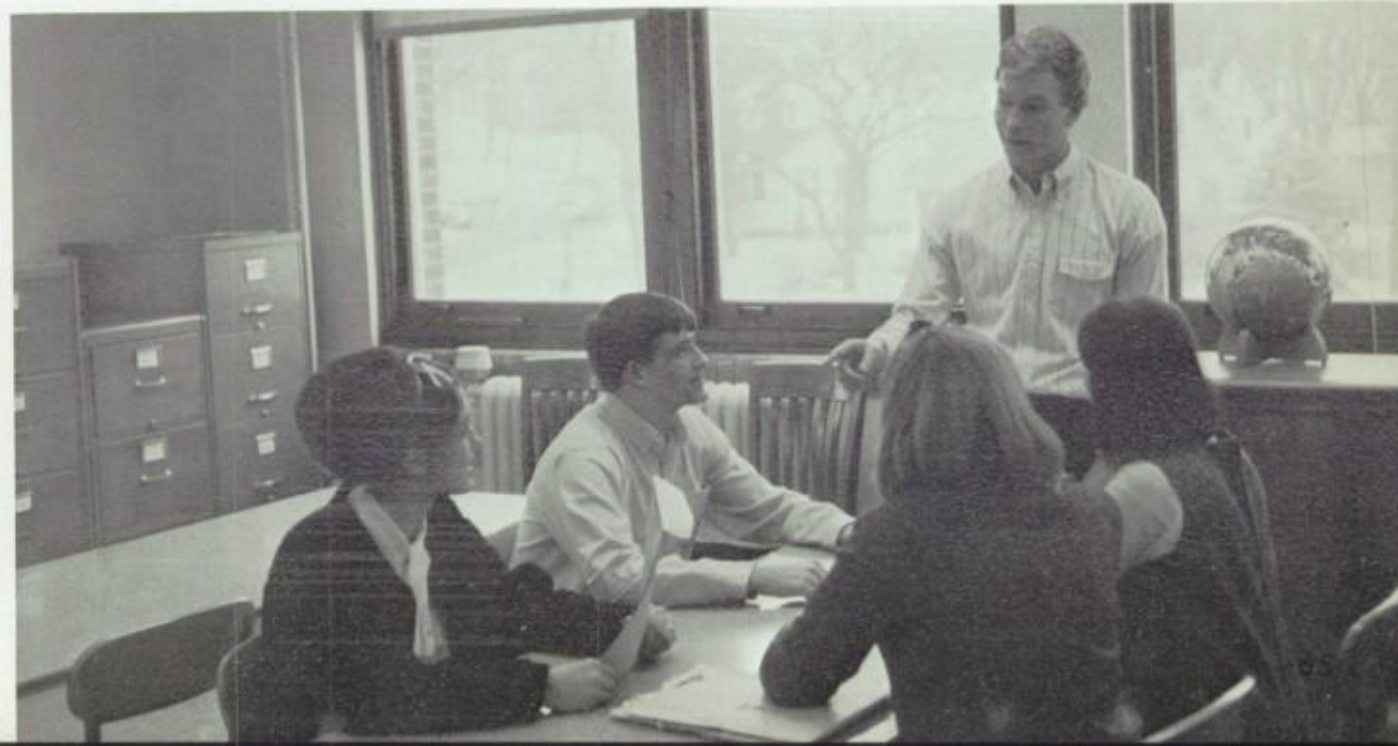

The Senior High Student Council, composed of two members from each of the sophomore, junior and senior home-rooms, met at least once a month during the year and many times after school during teacher's meetings.

This year's council kept in close touch with the students and the administration. The Student Council voiced student concern by questioning some of the school policies. A committee would gather information concerning the problem, then the council as a whole would decide upon remedial measures if any were needed.

Student Council activities this year included an orientation day for new students, Homecoming, the United Fund drive, the March of Toys assembly and Sno-Foolin'.

Officers of this year's council are: Harlan Pearson, president; Charles Aldean, vice-president; Bob Trammel, treasurer; and Joan Overgard, secretary. The council is advised by Mr. George Rose.

Students Join Latin Club and FTA

FTA offers Murray's students a chance to learn more about the teaching profession. The club advisor this year was Mr. Wilfred Parnell.

Future Teachers of America is open only to juniors and seniors interested in making teaching a career.

With a total of 11 members, Latin Club was limited in their activities this year.

Their purpose was to acquaint themselves with the ancient Roman civilization and the effect it has had on the world today.

The Murcurie

Vol. XXIX, No. 11

Murray High School, St. Paul, Minnesota

Friday, May 24, 1968

Producing ten issues in one year seemed an enormous task that faced the 1968 Murcurie staff last spring.

Led by Linda Clemens, editor-in-chief, and advised by Mr. Jack Lape, the staff set out to record the life of Murray. The staff was composed of Page One Editors John Novak and Kathy Keller, Feature Editors Gale Sweetland and Ginny Wiles, News Editors Steve Brooten and Robin Adley, Sports Editors Sherri Goodlet and Chuck Workman, Business Manager Lisa Kuutti, Artist and Advertising Editor Lala Fletcher, and Circulation and Exchange Editor Kathy Dunnwald.

New this year, the News Bureau tried to bring Murray to St. Paul. Directed by Carol Pfutzenreuter, the staff wrote about Murray for the St. Paul papers.

Much effort and hard work was applied through the year and a sigh of relief and satisfaction was expressed as the last issue rolled off the press.

Front row: Gale Sweetland, John Novak, Linda Clemens, Kathy Keller.
Row 2: Robin Adley, Ginny Wiles, Steve Brooten, Sherri Goodlet, Chuck Workman, Lala Fletcher.

The Pilot

The yearbook is a time for hard work, long hours, frustration and satisfaction. When the staff was formed last spring, they began to look for new ideas and great things.

Advised by Mr. Jack Lape, co-editors Chris Nettekoven and Barb Stults, senior editor Mary Woodhouse, underclassmen editors Karla Hokanson and Doreen Neujahr, activity editors Bev Caldwell, Jann Flatten and Jeff Hayenga, and sports editors Dick Johnson and Vicky Dalnes, with added help of photographers Jeff Hayenga, Chuck Workman and Vicky Dalnes, business manager Lisa Kuutti, and artist and advertising editor Tracey Nelson made the total force behind the yearbook.

Yet as the year progressed and many of the innovations became reality while others were lost to practicality, the staff began to feel the pressures of deadlines to meet, copy to write, lost pictures, headlines, captions and headaches. The dreams faded into hard work and human labor.

But these dreams and ideas also began to take form. And slowly a book was completed - The Pilot 1968.

Spanish Club

Although Spanish I has been discontinued there is still an interest in Spanish. Under the supervision of Mrs. Lorraine Conley, 36 members meet every month to discuss coming events.

A Foto Fiesta was held in December. Amigo hosts were present to show pictures of Operation Amigo and any other interesting pictures. During this meeting exchange student Elizabeth Frey spoke of her own country and its customs.

The annual Spanish Club banquet was held in the spring.

Spanish Club officers are Kathy Cunningham, treasurer; Doreen Neujahr, secretary; Connie Walters, president; Sue Stein and Sheri Milburn, refreshment committee.

Announced at the GAA assembly held last spring were the 13 new sportheads and this year's officers. Following the assembly was the annual picnic held at Lake Harriet. This marked the beginning of a new year and new responsibilities for the sportheads. It became their duty to schedule sports, plan Homecoming, organize "The Thing" and the mother-daughter swim-and-gym night.

To earn a GAA letter award, members must accumulate more than 1,000 points over a period of three to four years. Participation in varying sports brought not only physical fitness but personal satisfaction to them.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Zink and Miss Patricia Lightbourn the Girl's Athletic Association gave freshmen through senior girls a chance to take part in athletic events.

Sno' Foolin' was a time for . . . senior nominations . . . candidates . . . a color revolution . . . pink and orange . . . balloons, balloons and more balloons . . . eating pies with no hands . . . a giant snow rabbit . . . buying buttons . . . hidden treasures . . . the coronation of Queen Judy and King Ray . . . crowning Princess Kathy and Prince Ron . . . getting out of school at one p.m. . . the meeting of sleds . . . dancing . . . The Good Idea . . . fun!

Sno' Foolin' this year was the fun-filled week of January 29. Activities throughout the week included a color clash day, a broom ball contest, a pie-eating contest and the snow sculpture contest. On Friday, February 2, the coronation assemblies took place, highlighted by the crowning of Judy Kruskopf and Ray Forliti in the senior high, with Kathy Anderson and Ron Foster representing the junior high. In the afternoon students participated in events at Como Park, and from 8:30 to 10:30 the annual Sno' Foolin' Dance was held.

During the year the Aquatic League met at least once a week for a two hour practice. This preparation was needed for the yearly show given in the spring.

In the fall of each year try-outs were held and club members were chosen. The girls must be able to perform a variety of swimming strokes plus stunts to become members. Membership is limited to sophomore, junior and senior girls.

The 1967 Aquatic League Show, It's About Time, traced important periods in history with special aqua numbers for each period.

The Aquatic League finished it's sixth year this year under the supervision of Miss Patricia Lightbourn.

Junior Synchronized Swimming, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Zink, is open to girls in seventh through ninth grades.

Activities during the year included a demonstration to stimulate interest in swimming at Fairview Hospital and two numbers in the Aquatic League Show given April 25 and 26 in the Murray pool.

New to Murray last year, this club seeks to prepare girls for the Aquatic League and promotes interest in swimming in the junior high.

Dramatic Club

This year's Dramatic Club, one of the most active clubs at Murray, staged two one-act plays, a dramatic reading and a three-act comedy farce. Along with acting impromptu skits for the club and the school, members attended a matinee showing of Gone with the Wind and a performance of The Visit at the Tyrone Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis.

Miss Judith Shanley, new advisor to the Dramatic Club this year, directed "The Lottery," a one-act drama by Brainerd Duffield; "The Bad Children," a one-act comedy by Shirley Jackson; a dramatic reading entitled "Genesis," adapted from the Bible; and a three-act comedy farce, See How They Run, by Philip King.

MHS Band Promotes Team Spirit,

Senior Band officers: Barb Koenig, president; Carol Lewandoski, secretary and Colette Zechmeister, treasurer.

Supporting Murray's athletic teams is an important part of the activities of the senior band. During the fall, it played at football games and in the winter the band played at hockey and basketball games. The spring brought the annual spring concert, the Memorial Day celebration at St. Anthony Park Elementary School and the school police picnic.

Under the direction of Mr. Alton Burns, band director, a group from the band took part in the one-act plays. The entire band performed at the Christmas Concert for the first time this year.

Band officers were Barb Koenig, president; Bruce Scherbert, vice-president; Carol Lewandoski, secretary and Colette Zechmeister, treasurer.

Hola y Adios a Nuestros Amigos

October 24 brought the arrival of 37 Operation Amigo students to Murray. The Amigos came from Eastern Venezuela and Sao Paulo, Brazil. The purpose of the Operation Amigo program was to help correct any misinformation about the United States the students might have and to give them first hand knowledge of the states.

Operation Amigo began five years ago and has brought more than 5,000 high school students from every Latin American country to more than 20 states in the United States.

Among other activities, the Amigo students attended a Murray football game, met St. Paul's mayor and Minnesota's governor, toured the University of Minnesota, Duluth, the iron mining region and various companies in the Twin Cities.

The 37 Amigos included 15 girls and 22 boys ranging in age from 15 to 19 years. They were chosen for scholastic and leadership abilities. The Amigos left St. Paul on November 8.

Jane Simmelink and Amigo Roberto Marmo understand each other through the use of a dictionary.

Getting acquainted with the Amigos did not take long, even when they didn't speak English or no one spoke Spanish or Brazilian. The Amigos spent three days attending classes at Murray, learning American teaching methods, eating the school's lunches and generally getting to know people. At their departure there were tears, promises to write, reminders of good times, laughter, and good-byes were found to be difficult to say.

Gridders Compile 5-2-1 Record

Murray's gridders finished the season with a 5-2-1 record. Co-captains Ron Hagen, fullback and Jim Bates, guard; defensive tackle Jay Anderson and junior guard Mark Forliti were named to the All-City team. Seniors Ray Forliti, Noel Rosenthal and junior Ron Smith were all given Honorable Mention.

Coach Robert Ritter

Harding After fumbling three times and giving up 12 points in the first quarter, Murray came back to tie it up. Dan Paulson scored on a 90 yard pass play from Ray Forliti. Gary Vogelsang tied it up on a pass from Forliti. In the third quarter Vogelsang scored 7 points. Forliti ran for a touchdown in the fourth quarter to wrap up the Pilot's first win 25-12.

Humboldt Humboldt scored as soon as they got the ball. They scored two more touchdowns and were winning 20-0 until late in the third quarter. The Pilot's finally got a drive going and scored on a 3 yard run by Forliti but failed to get the extra point. Halfback Gary Vogelsang ran for a touchdown and an extra point midway in the fourth quarter. Murray tried to get going once more but lost the ball and finally lost the game 20-13.

Monroe After going scoreless in the first quarter, Vogelsang scampered over on a short run, but the extra point failed. Dan Paulson scored in the third quarter. The game ended 12-0, Monroe being the only team the Pilots were able to hold scoreless. This gave the Pilots their second victory in three games. Vogelsang became one of the leading scorers.

St. Bernards In Murray's only non-conference game, St. Bernards scored first. Captain Ron Hagen, coming back from an injury, scored on a 30 yard run. The Bernies scored again but Forliti ran one over with Vogelsang scoring the extra point. The third quarter went scoreless with Murray losing 14-13. Dan Paulson scored on a 50 yard punt return late in the fourth quarter to give the Pilots a 20-14 victory.

Finishing Strong to Place Third

Mechanic Arts Ron Hagen scored in each of the first three quarters on runs of 45, 25, and 55 yards. Vogel-sang moved into second in the city in scoring when he ran for 15 yards. Forliti scored the only extra point of the game. Ben Nelson intercepted a pass and ran 85 yards for a touch-down. The game ended 32-6.

Johnson Ron Hagen scored on a short run in the first quarter with Ray Forliti running the extra point. The Govies scored in the second quarter. Ron Hagen scored again in the third quarter and ran the extra point. Gary Vogelsang sewed it up when he ran 20 yards for a touchdown to give the Pilots a decisive 20-6 victory and a 4-2 conference record.

Highland Going into the game on a cold snowy day, Highland had to beat Murray in order to gain the City title. Paulson scored first on a 23 yard run. Hagen ran the extra point. Highland scored in the second quarter. After a scoreless third quarter. Paulson scored again on a 53 yard touchdown to give the Pilot's a 14-6 upset.

Coach John Pearson

Central In this double Homecoming game, the first quarter went scoreless, looking like it might be a battle of the defenses. The second quarter Central exploded with 20 points. Ron Hagen scored to make it 20-7 at the half. Central scored again, but Gary Vogelsang scored and Noel Rosenthal recovered a fumble and scored to put the game within 6 points. Central came back with 13 more points later to end the game at 39-20.

Washington Washington scored twice in the first quarter, but Vogelsang ran for a 15 yard touchdown. Paulson scored on a 18 yard run with Hagen running the extra point to make it 14-13 in favor of the Prexies. Washington scored twice in the third quarter. Bruce Wetherby scored on a 44 yard pass from Forliti. Hagen scored late in the fourth quarter to tie it up at 26-26. The Pilots failed to get the extra point and the game ended in a tie.

Winning the cross country title for the second straight year, the harriers were undefeated in six dual meets and won the trophy by defeating all eight opponents at the city meet. Led by Captain Pete Hakensen and junior Roger Ashley, the Pilots scored four perfect meets. The Harriers placed 2, 5, 6, 11 and 15 to win the city meet. Frank Koenig and Joel Stoeckeler led the B-Squad to a second place meet finish by crossing the finish line holding hands to tie for the city B title. Others to do well besides the top 5 were senior John Glasgow and sophomore Jim Hayenga. Murray also participated in the Metro Invitational and the Swain Invitational in Duluth. In the annual intra-squad race, a young Langford team beat the Comoites on Murray's grueling fast course at Breck field. During the season eight runners broke the 11 minute mark. Losing only two seniors from the top five runners and six seniors all together, the future looks bright.

Bucketmen Begin Well, End Sixth

Murray's 1968 basketball team started off the first part of the season looking like a definite title contender for the first time in many years. Two of the losses in the first eight games were by very close scores. In Murray's first game with champion Highland, they were winning by seven points at the half but lost the game later. The team lost their last four games and lost to Harding in the play-off. Sporting a 6-6 record and ending up in sixth place, the team was led by captain Dave Merrell who was the only unanimous choice on the All-City team. Generally the starters were Dave Merrell, sophomore Steve Berry, senior Doug Anderson, and juniors Tom Johnson and Bob Trammell. Others to see action were seniors Jim Bates and Dave Christianson and sophomore Dennis Hanson. With a majority of the players coming back and a fine B-Squad coming up, the team looks forward to taking the title next year.

Pucksters Finish Season Fifth

Murray's 1967-68 hockey team finished a disappointing season ending up in the lower half of the conference with a 6-6 record in fifth place. Their over-all record was 9-7. There were a few bright spots among all their dark blotches this season though. During their first three games, goalie Ron Smith had three shut-outs. In the Pilots second game, against Humboldt, Gary Vogelsang scored with 10 seconds left to win the game. In the second Johnson game, the Pilots were tied 1-1 at the end of the second period but lost the game 4-2 because of penalties. Noel Rosenthal gained All-City for the second year in a row. Ron Smith and Gary Vogelsang gained honorable mention. This was Coach Bernie Broderick's fifteenth and last year as coach.

Led by captains Larry Huwe and Larry Weihrauch, the 1967 A-squad baseball team tied for seventh place in the city conference. The team had several seniors, but experience failed to pay off. Coached by Mr. Robert Ritter, the team lost their first game to Highland Park. It looked like they might have a come back when they defeated their next opponent, Harding. But the spirit and enthusiasm of the team just couldn't carry them as far as they wanted to go. The team lost the next five games and won only one more. The A-squad will have an advantage next year when members of the undefeated B-squad move up.

Murray's 1967 B-squad baseball team finished the year successfully, taking the city title. Coached by Mr. Ronald Causton, the team produced a very good defense and excellent pitching. Tom Johnson, as pitcher, provided the center and stabilizing point of the whole team. Others on the team to do well were Tom Wandmacher, Tom Spooner, Paul Alfonse, Glen Strandquist, Marc Bartlett, Al Youngdahl, Dave Anderson, Gary Esboldt and John Trammell. Most of the team were sophomores, so it looks like the A-squad has a bright future ahead of them and B-squad will have to start building from the beginning.

Netmen Finish Season Second

Led by Captain Tom Nylund, the 1967 tennis team placed second to Highland in the city race and the district match. The top seven players were (1) Tom Nylund (2) Pete Stish (3) Bob Trammell (4) Ron Smith (5) Tim Thorstenson (6) Larry Johnston (7) Greg Giefer. The first doubles combination of Ron Smith and Tim Thorstenson was able to stay undefeated throughout the season. First and second singles Tom Nylund and Pete Stish only had one loss until the district match. This was Coach Bernie Broderick's last year after 12 years at the helm. In his last five years he produced two first-place teams and three second-place teams. The future looks bright with the loss of only one player from the top seven.

A young team with only one senior, the linkmen were able to win their first four meets until they were defeated by Harding. One of the highlights of the season was the 15-0 white-washing of Mechanic Arts. Cheering Brings Joy and Tears

Cheerleading is more than just cheering to the eight 'A' squad and six 'B' squad cheerleaders.

To the 'A' squad it's summer practices, that first preview, slumber parties, Becky and the Seven Dwarfs, cross country in the rain at Duluth, football in the snow, a cross country victory party, Embers at 2:30 a.m. in P.J.'s, posters, car washes, cakes, trying to skate, shrinking jumpsuits, dirty white tennis, decorating goal posts, victory, tears, joy, defeat, disappointment. Yet, above all, happiness.

To the 'B' squad, it's learning cheers, empty bleachers, cold knees, new experiences, confusion, caring too much, growing with the team. But most of all, it's fun.

We want you to know, again, how grateful we are that we have had the pleasure of working with you -- as individuals -- as a group.

Your marked qualities of enthusiasm, initiative and cooperation are, we believe, well reflected in this, your yearbook.

You have put many hours, days and weeks of planning, drawing, mounting, editing and selling into this book. That is why you are so thrilled with it now. And that is why-- as the first flush of excitement in possessing it in finished form wears away, and as the years roll by, you will find that by keeping it always near you, and reviewing it's story with friends old and new, you will cherish it more and more.
